

Aquatic Invasive Species Workshop: Developing a Rapid Response Plan for Ohio

Lake Erie Nature & Science Center – Bay Village, OH
April 18, 2007; 10:00am – 5:00pm

AGENDA

10:00 am	Welcome, Introductions	Ohio Sea Grant College Program Eugene Braig, Assistant Director Frank Lichtkoppler, Extension Specialist
10:15 am	Aquatic Invasive Species Issues in Ohio	Ohio Sea Grant College Program Fred Snyder, Extension Specialist and Program Co-Leader
10:45 am	Regional Perspectives: State Management Planning in the Great Lakes Model Rapid Response Plan for Great Lakes Aquatic Invasions	Great Lakes Commission Erika Jensen, Sea Grant Fellow Kathe Glassner-Shwayder, Senior Project Manager
11:15 am	Indiana's Rapid Response Experiences	Indiana Department of Natural Resources Doug Keller, Aquatic Invasive Species Coordinator
11:45 pm	State Perspective	ODNR Division of Wildlife John Navarro, Program Administrator
12:15 pm	LUNCH
1:15 pm	Afternoon agenda overview Instructions for break-out sessions
1:30 pm	Break-out sessions A reasonable, sensible, effective, and responsible Ohio Rapid Response Plan for dealing with aquatic invasive species should include...	Ohio Sea Grant College Program Facilitators
3:30 pm	BREAK
3:45 pm	Report out from break-out sessions	Ohio Sea Grant College Program Facilitators
4:45 pm	Wrap Up, Next Steps	Frank Lichtkoppler, Ohio Sea Grant College Program Kathe Glassner-Shwayder, Great Lakes Commission
5:00 pm	ADJOURN	